Wald, Ruhnke & Dost Architects' Marketing and Public Relations Director Jenna Tyndall, inset photo, celebrates her first year helping the largest full-service firm in Monterey County earn its first Gold Nugget award.

Tyndall has enhanced the firm's digital and print communications while promoting the company's brand and culture of creativity, innovation and service.

"Jenna works hand in glove with our team," said Principal Henry Ruhnke. "She is passionate about sustainable, beautiful design and the people it serves. That enthusiasm resonates clearly in her ability to captivate others with her sense of humor, well-chosen words and vivid imagery. It is a joy working with her."

Tyndall spent more than ten years at daily newspapers, winning individual and newspaper-wide awards from The Associated Press, Top of the Rockies and the Utah Press Association.
